SCS 100 Learning Block 6-3 Reflection Rubric

Prompt: For this assignment, reflect on what you consider to be some of the most significant developments covered in this theme (for example, discoveries, changes in thinking, or research advances), and address the following:

- Identify the developments and how they impact individuals or larger groups/cultures.
- Describe how the developments changed society’s understanding. How is the development applicable outside of the social sciences?

This assignment can be completed through a “micro-presentation” format (1 to 2 slides) or a short-answer response (1 to 2 paragraphs).

If you are choosing to submit your final reflection as a presentation, please complete the micro-presentation for this assignment (a presentation with one to two slides and accompanying notes). You may use a presentation platform of your choice (Microsoft PowerPoint, Prezi, etc.) to complete this assignment. For more information on accessing and using either PowerPoint or Prezi, view the Supporting Resources document.

If you are choosing to submit your final reflection as a short paper, please complete the short answer response for this assignment (a written response of one to two paragraphs). Both assignments will be graded using the same criteria.
